

George graduated from Otago Medical School in 2011 and has been working mostly in the CDHB since. He has a special interest in trauma and musculoskeletal disorders and as a result has recently completed 4 years in orthopaedics as a registrar. He has now developed an interest in primary care and is excited to be a member of our team.

George has an experience in injuries, trauma, fractures, muscle and joint problems, steroid injections and minor surgery.