

Sophie graduated from Otago Medical School in 2020 and has been in the CDHB region since. She has spent her time working in a wide range of hospital specialties and has recently completed a Diploma of “Child Health.” She has elected to be a GP and did the GP training in 2025.